

DAVIDSON MEN CLAIM VICTORY

Prominent La Follette Leaders Are Fast Climbing Into Band Wagon.

"BRYAN AND MERTON," SAY DEMS

Wisconsin Followers Of The Donkey In Perfect Harmony On Candidates For United States President And State Governor.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., June 13.—Friends of Governor J. O. Davidson declare that the tide has set in irresistibly in favor of his nomination for governor at the republican primaries in November. They no longer admit that Speaker L. L. Leacock of Superior, the chosen candidate of Senator La Follette, has "growing possibilities" that may threaten the chances of success of their leader now in the executive office. There are indications that the close friends of Senator La Follette are very apprehensive, but the fight is by no means abandoned. It is expected that Senator La Follette will return to Wisconsin in about three weeks and that he will then set to work to swing the table around in favor of Speaker Leacock. The last important augmentation to the Davidson ranks is that of General George S. Bryant, who was chairman of the republican state central committee and conducted the first two successful La Follette campaigns. He has a large influence with the old soldiers all over the state. W. D. Connor of Marshfield, present state republican chairman, is already out for Davidson and it is assured that whatever can be done with the party organization in the pre-primary campaign will be done in the interests of Governor Davidson.

In the Democratic Column "Bryan and Merton" appears to be the slogan of the democrats of Wisconsin—Bryan for president in 1908 and Senator Ernest Merton of Waukesha for governor at the election this fall. A spontaneous outcropping of sentiment in favor of the Nebraska as the standard-bearer of the national party is everywhere apparent in this state, including in its circle not only the democrats who remained steadfast to Bryan in his two unsuccessful presidential campaigns, but also the many influential gold democrats who supported the Palmer and Buckner ticket ten years ago. Prominent among the latter is Colonel William F. Vilas of Madison, former United States senator and twice a member of the cabinet. He will head the Dane county delegation to the democratic state convention which will make a platform and select candidates to be recommended to the voters of the party at the primary election.

MAYOR M'CLELLAN IS GIVEN AN LL. D.

Installed Today As Honorary Chancellor Of Union University At Schenectady, N. Y.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Schenectady, N. Y., June 13.—Mayor M'Clellan of New York City was today installed as Honorary Chancellor of Union University, and at the same time received the attendant degree of Doctor of Laws. The degree was conferred by President Raymond in the presence of a large and brilliant assemblage. Among Mayor M'Clellan's predecessors as Honorary Chancellor of Union are James Russell Lowell, General Horace Porter, Bishop Potter, General William Curtis, Hamilton W. Mabie, and Gen. John A. Dix.

"IRON" WEDDING OF MASTER CARPENTER

Favorite Of Berlin Court Celebrates The Seventieth Anniversary Of His Marriage.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Berlin, June 13.—An unusual festivity has just taken place at Potsdam. Herr Ferso, who boasts of the proud title of "master carpenter of the imperial court," celebrated his "iron" wedding, which stands in Germany for the 70th anniversary of that event. The old gray-haired who is a favorite at court, is ninety-three years of age, and his wife, eighty-six. Emperor William made the couple a present of two finely decorated vases from the royal porcelain factory. The crown prince sent a diamond pin, and Prince Ernst Frederick appeared in person to offer his congratulations. Prince Hohenzollern conferred the "order of his house" upon the "iron" bridegroom, and the garrison commander at Potsdam sent two magnificent oil paintings framed in oak. So, with all these distinctions showered upon them it is safe to assume that no prouder or happier couple lives in Potsdam today than Herr and Frau Ferso.

GEORGIA MUNICIPAL LEAGUE IS HOLDING ITS ANNUAL MEETING

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Augusta, Ga., June 13.—Mayors and other officials of all the leading cities of the state filled Miller Walker hall this morning at the opening of the annual convention of the Municipal League of Georgia. Mayor Richard Allen of this city presided. After the exchange of greetings and the presentation of the report of the secretary and treasurer, Mayor Bridges Smith of Macon, the convention listened to papers as follows: "The Defects and Remedies of the Vagrancy Law," Mayor L. A. Clarke of Covington; "The Improvement of Our Rivers and Harbors by the Federal Government," Mayor L. H. Chappell of Columbus; "The Relation of the Recorder's Court to Other Courts," Hon. Curtis Nottingham, Macon; "The Adjustment of State and Municipal Liabilities," Mayor Herman Myers of Savannah; "Municipal Improvements in Small Cities," Hon. Nisbet Wingfield, superintendent of public works, Augusta. Great preparations have been concluded for the annual convention banquet which takes place tonight at the Commercial club. The convention will conclude its business tomorrow.

GREAT "HOMECOMING" OF ALL KENTUCKIANS

Five Days Of Fetes And Fiestas At Louisville—Visitors From Every Other State.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Louisville, Ky., June 13.—Special trains from all parts of the country are bringing home-coming to the reunion, and "Old Home Week" festival. From the throngs that crowd the streets and other public places it would appear that a good proportion of the 600,000 Kentuckians who have emigrated to other states have accepted the invitation of the Louisville Commercial club "to come home and see the folks." Kansas City, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Cincinnati and other cities sent heavily loaded special trains with bands and banners flying. The city is splendidly adorned for the occasion. The most extraordinary enthusiasm prevails and the musicians are vying with each other in the production of "My Old Kentucky Home."

The festivities are to continue through the remainder of the week. Today is given over to the reception of the visitors, the formal welcome being made by Henry Watterson and the response by David R. Francis, a former governor of Missouri and a native of Kentucky. The exercises take place in the new armory, which is handsomely decorated both inside and out.

Tomorrow will be "Foster" day, in memory of Stephen Collins Foster, the author of the immortal song, "My Old Kentucky Home." The events of the day will include brass band and vocal concerts, it being planned to mass several bands to render "My Old Kentucky Home," and have a chorus of several thousand children honor Foster's memory. Another event of the day will be the unveiling of a statue of Foster, which later is to be placed in the new state capitol at Frankfort.

Friday, which has been designated as "Daniel Boone Day," will give both host and guest the opportunity of paying tribute to the Kentucky pioneer, reviving the state's earliest history, the trials and privations of its men and women a hundred years ago, and the fights led by Gen. George Rogers Clark. In Cherokee Park a statue of Daniel Boone will be unveiled with interesting ceremonies.

Saturday has been set aside as "Greater Kentucky day," with barbecues and campfires, a day when speakers can tell how Kentuckians have assisted in making the fields of other states more prolific, the bench and bar of other states more learned, their press more profound, how Kentuckians have helped disclose the hidden mineral treasures of other states; and how they have contributed to advancement under all conditions.

Sunday will be given over to the spirit inspired by the song, "Until We Meet Again." All the pupils of the Louisville churches will be filled by ministers of the gospel who are former Kentuckians.

Donovan Fisheries Commission. Vancouver, B. C., June 13.—This is the date fixed for the reassembling of the Dominion fisheries commission in British Columbia to consider the fisheries question of the coast. The commission will visit all the canneries, traps, etc., in Canadian Pacific waters and on Puget Sound and gather all the data necessary to arrive at a definite conclusion regarding the great fishing industry of the Pacific.

THOUSANDS IN RUSH FOR MILLION ACRES

Registration For Opening Of Crown Agency Lands In Montana Begins Tomorrow.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Billings, Mont., June 13.—Tomorrow the registration for the opening of the crown agency lands will begin. Great crowds are gathered here and also at Sheridan, Wyo., which is the other filing point, and the indications are that it will be one of the largest land drawings ever conducted by the United States. The lands lie south of the Yellowstone river and north of Fort Custer, which is at the junction of the Burlington road and the Big Horn river. The land to be opened comprises approximately 1,100,000 acres of land, 125,000 of which can be easily irrigated. About 300,000 acres of the remainder of the agency comprises fine grazing lands and pasture.

CREDIT MEN HOLD ANNUAL GATHERING

Society Was Influential In Having Present Bankruptcy Laws Passed And Enforced.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Baltimore, Md., June 13.—Delegates were in attendance from all parts of the country today at the opening of the annual convention of the National Association of Credit Men. The convention will be in session three days, during which time many questions of vital importance to the business welfare of the country will be discussed. The association, which was largely instrumental in securing the enactment of the present bankruptcy law, will take steps to oppose any tinkering with the measure. The reports of the several officers show the association to be in a flourishing condition. Its present membership includes about 7,200 firms, which represent an aggregate of between 50,000 and 60,000 individuals.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

The trial of Curtis Jett, indicted for the alleged assassination of James Cockrell, town marshal of Jackson, Ky., was continued yesterday at Owensboro, Ky., until the September term of court.

Bert Townsend, a former newspaper man of Iowa City, committed suicide. A jury has decided that Thad Quarry of Decatur is not guilty of the murder of Adam Bowersock.

After deliberating twenty-two hours a jury at Edwardsville, Ill., returned a verdict of guilty against Joseph Nolan, saloon-keeper, on trial for the killing of Fred Haynes and William Sonnet.

Fire swept a large portion of the town of Peebles, Ohio, yesterday, destroying fourteen buildings and entailing a loss of more than $15,000. The warehouse of the Waters-Pleco 900 J. L. Brockman, a spectator, was burned yesterday, the loss being $115,000. The buildings destroyed included the hotel, the Knights of Pythias hall and several stores. The fire department of Davenport, Iowa, helped save the rest of the town.

MILLION DOLLAR FIRE IN BALTIMORE TODAY

Wiped Out The Big Savannah Dock And Destroyed Steamer "Essex"—Valuable Freight Consumed—Three Men Killed.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Baltimore, Md., June 13.—A million-dollar fire early today wiped out the big Savannah dock of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation company, destroyed the steamer "Essex" of that line and all the valuable freight with which the dock was crowded, as well as a number of scows loaded with cotton and resin. The steamer crew consisting of about forty men all escaped, with the exception of three who were burned to death and two others who cannot be accounted for.

HE WILL NOT INTERFERE IN IOWA STATE POLITICS

President Intimates That If Secretary Shaw Attacks Governor Cummins, He Does So On His Own Responsibility.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, D. C., June 13.—President Roosevelt absolutely disclaims any participation or interference in Iowa political affairs and says Secretary Shaw's visit to his home state at this time is made "on his own responsibility." The disclaimer was called out by published statements that Shaw would represent the President in a speech he is to make at Davenport in opposition to Governor Cummins.

WERE IMPLICATED BY CURTIS JETT

Former Sheriff Callahan and Albert Harges Arrested in Kentucky for Murder of Dr. Cox.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Jackson, Ky., June 31.—Former Sheriff Ed. Callahan and Albert Harges were arrested here today on the charge of murdering Dr. B. D. Cox several years ago. They were mentioned in the confession made by Curtis Jett in the jail at Cincinnati, Breathitt county, Monday, in which full details of the assassination of Dr. Cox, James Cockrell, and J. B. Moore were given.

$17,000 CONTRACT AT LOCKPORT, ILL.

Janesville Cornice Works Furnishing and Installing Much Copper and Tiling.

For work on the immense power house of the Lockport Power Development company at Lockport, Ill., the Janesville Cornice Works, located in the old cotton mill building on North Franklin street, has a $17,000 contract. The concern is to furnish the material for and construct copper window frames and sashes, copper gutters and conductors and a tile roof. In the building, which is 384x64, there will be one hundred and fifty window frames and sashes. These and the gutters and conductors are now being made at the local shop and will soon be shipped. The finished material will fill three large cars. Twelve tons of twenty-ounce copper is being used in the manufacture. The Janesville Cornice works have several other good sized contracts now. One is for copper cornice and gutters and tile roof on "Register of Deeds-Probate Building" at Elkhorn, $2,300; one for six lights, lead flashing copper, on the Rockford City hall, $1,500; another for the Monroe High School slate roof and cornice, $2,000. This work is keeping from six to ten skilled copper and tin-workers busy the entire time and a portion of the summer fifteen men will be employed.

JOHN PETERS ILL IN JOLIET HOSPITAL

Former Alderman and Associate of Hayes Brothers Stricken With Malarial Fever.

Word was received here today to the effect that former Alderman John Peters, who is associated with Hayes Brothers in the big Lockport operations, is seriously ill with malarial fever in a hospital at Joliet, Ill. Mrs. Peters received a letter this noon and immediately departed for the Illinois city.

T. P. A. Convention.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 13.—The feature of this, the third day of the annual convention of the Travelers' Protective association, was the memorial exercises this afternoon in honor of the memory of those who have passed away since the last annual gathering. The national chaplain, Rev. Homer T. Wilson, of Fort Worth, Texas, presided over the exercises and the oration was delivered by Charles A. Weller of Knoxville, Tenn. The program was liberally interspersed with music.

LATE TELEGRAMS.

Mutinies in Russian Army. St. Petersburg, June 13.—Reports received by the minister of war indicate that revolutionists are directing all their energies to a propaganda in the army. In a dozen places the agitation has resulted in open mutinies.

Preparing for Convention. Christiania, Norway, June 13.—King Haakon, Queen Maud and Crown Prince Olaf left today on a special train for Trondheim, preparatory to the king's coronation, June 22.

Wage Scale Is Rejected. Brazil, Ind., June 13.—Miners in the black coal district today formally rejected the report of the joint scale committee which had agreed upon terms for adjustment of differences between the miners and operators. A prolonged struggle seems probable.

Will Hear Coal Road Heads. Philadelphia, Pa., June 13.—The interstate commerce commission today wired to its secretary in Washington to notify the presidents of coal-carrying roads, that the commission will be ready to hear them June 21 in Washington.

Commencement At De Pauw. Greencastle, Ind., June 13.—The sixty-seventh annual commencement exercises of De Pauw university were held in the university auditorium today. The address was made by the Rev. William A. Quayle, D. D., of Chicago.

Secretary The Speaker. Syracuse, N. Y., June 13.—Many notable were present at today's commencement exercises of Syracuse university. Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw addressed the graduating class and the diplomas were delivered by Chancellor James R. Day.

Western Boards Of Trade. Edmonton, Alta., June 13.—The second annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Western Canada met here today with a good attendance. All matters relating to the development of western Canada will be discussed during the two days of the convention.

Negro Business League. Jackson, Miss., June 13.—The Mississippi Negro Business league began its second annual convention here today with several hundred representative members of the race in attendance. A wide variety of topics relating to the negro in business will be discussed during the two days' sessions.

Iowa State Normal School. Cedar Falls, Iowa, June 13.—The class that graduated today from the Iowa State Normal school was one of the largest in the history of the institution. The commencement address was delivered by John F. Riggs of Des Moines, state superintendent of public instruction.

Miners' Celebration. Butte, Mont., June 13.—A notable celebration of miners' town day was held in Butte today. Business was generally suspended and the city was decorated for the occasion. Governor Joseph K. Toole delivered the address of the day.

Editors' Talk Shop. Indianapolis, Ind., June 13.—The National Editorial association is celebrating its coming of age with the largest gathering in its history. The twenty-first annual convention opened for business this morning. After prayer by Bishop Francis the association listened to the annual address of the president, John Dymond of New Orleans. Several committee reports were followed by papers by Avery C. Moore of Weiser, Idaho, and E. P. Adler of Davenport, Ia.

Weds Naval Lieutenant. New York, June 13.—In St. Bartholomew's church, Brooklyn, the marriage was celebrated today of Miss Ruth Gibson, daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. William C. Gibson, and Lieut. Theodore William Tarrant, U. S. N. The bridegroom is at present attached to the cruiser Charleston. The wedding was attended by many naval officers.

RAISE FUNDS FOR FISHERMAN CREW

Two Crews Are To Be Sent East This Month To Race At Pough-keepsie.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., June 13.—The two crews that will represent Wisconsin and the western colleges in the annual eastern regatta on the Hudson river at Poughkeepsie, Saturday, June 23, will doubtless be the last for a good many years to come, if not forever. Wisconsin is this year making a last desperate effort to make a creditable showing in eastern waters. With the establishment of rowing as a college sport at the University of Chicago there will be possible the forming of a western regatta for which Wisconsin has played ever since aquatics were started at Madison. The eastern trip has always been undertaken under many hardships and in one sense it was sheer necessity, providing a goal for the Badger oarsmen to work during the long winter and spring training. Once the western boys won a freshman eight-oar race of two miles and once the varsity eight came very near winning the premier contest of the regatta, the varsity eight-oar race of four miles. Every eight-oar race has been without glory.

Coach O'Dea, practically threw away his old stroke and invented or borrowed a new one at the beginning of the training for the present season. Even at this late day he will not allow pictures of his oarsmen in motion to be taken, being afraid that his strike will become known to the rivals of the east and that they might possibly see its good points. It is hard to understand here how eastern coaches could profit by such information at this time, even should it prove true that the author of the old Yarra-yarra stroke has made another discovery.

The decision to take the freshman eight-oar was reached only yesterday, when it was found that if $100 more were raised there would be money enough available to pay for the eastern trip. The "committee of 25," an organization of students fostering athletics, signed a note and got it taken at a bank, for the necessary sum.

COLE IS NOMINATED TO GOVERNORSHIP

Minnesota Republicans Award Honor on Fourth Ballot—Contest for Place Warm.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Duluth, Minn., June 13.—The republican state convention was called to order here this morning. Everything now points to a warm contest, as there are from three to seven candidates for each office on the ticket. This afternoon A. L. Cole was nominated for governor on the fourth ballot.

SMOOT CASE HUNG UP AGAIN; OVER TO THE NEXT SESSION

United States Senate Will Take up the Canal Type on Friday Next.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, D. C., June 13.—By virtue of an understanding reached in the senate today a vote will probably be had on the canal type bill next Friday. Senator Burrows, chairman of the senate committee on privileges, has decided not to call up the Smoot case for consideration until the next session.

An unexpected stage was reached today in the movement for early adjournment. If it is possible the type of the Panama canal must be settled before congress closes its business. Secretary Taft was in conference with Speaker Cannon and Chairman Hepburn of the committee on interstate commerce which handles canal legislation, and there is a disposition manifested to settle the type of canal before adjournment.

THE MAD RULER OF BAVARIA IS DYING

King Otto, Successor Of Raving Brother, Ill On Anniversary Of Ascension To Throne.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Berlin, June 12.—A dispatch from Munich says that serious illness has again taken hold upon King Otto of Bavaria. By a peculiar coincidence today happens to be the twentieth anniversary of King Otto's ascension to the throne. Several years before he succeeded his mad brother, King Ludwig II, Otto was afflicted with a most dangerous form of mental trouble and for twenty years he has been hopelessly insane, the country being under the rule of a regency. Ludwig II. was found drowned in Starnberger Lake, on the royal estates. He had committed suicide. Ludwig's form of insanity was an exaggerated passion for art. Otto's passion is to kill. For twenty years his guards have stood in dread of their lives while on duty watching over their insane ruler. He is a man of gigantic stature, with unkempt beard and wild eyes. His pastime was shooting at peasants who chanced to pass within range of his windows. It is said that he would sit at a window all through the day waiting for a chance to "pot" a peasant.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN IN ST. PETERSBURG

Arrived in Russian Capital This Morning—Departs for Stockholm on Friday.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] St. Petersburg, June 13.—William J. and Mrs. Bryan arrived here today from Berlin and will remain until Friday, when they will depart for Stockholm and Christiania.

Maine G. A. R. Convention. Portland, Me., June 13.—The annual encampment of the Maine G. A. R. opened in Portland today, to continue until Friday. The attendance of veterans is large and all signs point to a most successful gathering.

Indian Gamblers.

The Osage Indians are inveterate gamblers and are especially devoted to the great American game of poker.
says the Kansas City Journal. According to Ret Millard, now Osage Indian agent, their favorite game differs somewhat from the familiar game of draw. There is no draw in their game. Nine or ten bucks are ranged in a circle, five cards are dealt to each, and they simply bet on the cards thus obtained. Just after a payment it is nothing unusual for the stakes to run well up into the hundreds of dollars.

"GOOD AS GOLD," SUBJECT

Graduating Exercises Are Held This Morning—Closing School Year."Good as Gold" was the title of the play produced by the girls of the State Institute for the Blind at the commencement exercises last evening. The play was under the auspices of the White Rose literary society and despite the fact that but three of the actors could see was produced in a very capable manner. The parts were well taken, the story interesting and the specialties introduced excellent. The following was the cast:
"Mrs. Rogers," Kittie Rausch of Madison; "Theo," Mary Hanson, Fish Creek; "Norice," Sarah Van Walle, Kenosha; "Dorothy," Thomsina Carlyle, La Crosse; "Hester," Jennie

Fish Creek.Story of Play
The play itself is a little home comedy. Mrs. Rogers and four daughters live together and a rich aunt and consine are coming to visit them. The aunt is to select one of the four to take to Europe with her. Mrs. Rogers is to leave on a visit, but leaves a note for Aunt Laura in charge of her daughters. Aunt Laura and cousin Lucinda arrive on a train at the depot and find no one to meet them. Here some clever work is done by the porter and by the chorus composed of the rest of the members of the White Rose society. The girls sing college songs and rejoice in a football victory. One little tot did some clever tambourine dancing as well.
Aunt Laura and Cousin Lucinda change their dresses and personages.
At the house, the two are received by the four girls. Three of the daughters attempt to ingratiate themselves with the supposed Aunt Laura, really their Cousin Lucinda, while the fourth is good to the supposed Lucinda.
Of course Dorothy is the one chosen for the European trip and all ends happily.Well Taken All the parts were well taken and the fact that but three of the actors could see did not detract from the enjoyment of the scenes depicted or any of the pleasing dialogues. This morning the regular graduating exercises were held and at noon Superintendent and Mrs. Clark entertained the graduating class and teachers at dinner.

DR. E. L. EATON IS TO

CONDUCT CAMPAIGN

Former Janesville Divine Will Head

Ticket of Wisconsin Dry Politicians This Fall.

Dr. E. L. Eaton of Madison, formerly of Janesville, will doubtless be the gubernatorial nominee of the Wisconsin prohibitionists. He will be prominent in the party's campaign and will be one of those suggested by the state convention now in session at Madison for the nomination at the primary election in September. The leaders of the present gathering suggest that they intend to make a strenuous campaign this summer and fall along new lines, such as have been successful in Illinois and Pennsylvania. Advice is being taken from representatives of these two states and it has been determined to contravene the efforts of the cold-water party in a few legislative districts where there is thought to be some chance of electing members to the state lawmaking body. Dr. Eaton is a retired Methodist minister and is now giving his time to prohibition work among the churches, trying to work among the people who entertain prohibition ideas to vote that way instead of going in with one or the other of the old parties.

LAST NIGHT'S EXERCISES

Proved Exceptionally Good—Class Exercises Filled With Original Wit and Humor.Scarcely a ticket for tonight's graduation exercises at the high school remains unsold. The members of the senior class had charge of the sale, in order that their friends may be given the preference, and it was next to impossible yesterday to buy a seat. The program is the class play,
"As You Like It." This is the first Shakespearean piece used for commencement, but thorough training and constant practice assures a successful production. The cast of characters is as follows:Jerome Davis
Orlando.....John Joseph O'Connors
Adam.....John Brown
Le Beau.....Floyd L. Davis
Banished Duke.....James Hoague
Oliver.....Harold Lee Jones
Duke Frederick.....Harvey R. Lee
Amiens.....Chester Arthur Morse
Touchstone.....Frank Phelps
Sylvius.....Elmer J. Dreyer
Charles the Wrestler.....Harry Hyzer
Rosalin.....Lucy E. Granger
Gelia.....Glady Cleveland Heddes
Audrey.....Grace M. Hall
Phoebe.....Ludella Jane Hawk Corin.....John McCuneWhat proved to be one of the most interesting exercises that was ever held in the high school occurred last evening. The speakers were understood and heard to the farthest corners of the large gymnasium. At no time was there any trouble of hearing, the younger element, which has often disturbed the audience, being surprisingly quiet.

Evening Cool

The evening was cool and no fans were necessary to make the audience comfortable. The speaking was excellent and clearly showed the hard training the graduates have been undergoing in the last month to make this commencement one of the best in the history of the Janesville high school. The class exercises were given in a manner that clearly demonstrated a long and thoughtful exertion. The puns which were given in these various exercises were original and laughable and caused much amusement among the friends of the graduates.

Theses Good

Especially good were the theses, they being new and original and illustrated by John Arndt with the stereopticon lantern. Much credit is due to the students and teachers for the freshness of these numbers and the instructive subjects chosen. The students delivered their theses in a manner that aroused and kept the interest of the audience. Even the small boys who have in the past failed to find any interest were quiet.

Good Music

The music which was furnished by the High School Girls' Glee Club and the High School Orchestra also added to the pleasure of the evening and showed some of the good work which is being accomplished by the high school students outside of books. The young ladies never fail to please and last evening they were exceptionally good and were called back both times they appeared on the program. The last evening's program was as follows:

THE STORY OF CLASSIFIED TOWN

CHAPTER VI.

This is the bookkeeper, smiling content; His accounts are correct to the very last cent. When he adds a column it's always with pride; He knows that the balance is on the right side.

"The balance of power," said he, "you will find, Is in the ad columns—the very best kind. Gazette want ads form columns of strength, From first to the last, throughout the whole length."

The Gazette ad columns gave me the chance To obtain a position and then to advance. If you're seeking work to the moral take heed; The Gazette want ads you should every day read."

(To be continued tomorrow.)

Regimental Reunions and Forty-third Anniversary Battle Chickamauga, Chattanooga, September 18-20, 1906.

On September 18, 1906, will occur the forty-third anniversary of the Battle of Chickamauga. It is proposed to celebrate this memorable event with a reunion of the various regiments that participated in this memorable battle and the various battles fought around Chattanooga. This reunion will be held at Chickamauga National Park, September 18, 19 and 20, and the present indications are that it will be the largest and most notable gathering ever held in the South. On the above dates, the remnants from the armies of twelve states, comprising the following: Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and Kentucky, will assemble, many of the first and last time since they marched from its blood-stained fields, forty-three years ago.

Here is one of the greatest opportunities for the education of the youth. Don't fail to take your children and show them historic Chattanooga, with all its historical connections. It is the opportunity of a lifetime. Go and see the old war generals and other officers point out the places of interest on the battlefield.

person, the markers erected on the battlefield showing the positions of the opposing armies at the time of battle. It will not be long until none will be left to do this noble work.

It will be many years, if ever again, that such an opportunity will present itself. See that your tickets read via the Louisville & Nashville R. R., the Battlefield Route. Call on your nearest railroad agent for rates and advertising matter pertaining to the reunion, or write nearest representative of the Louisville & Nashville R. R.

The Chinese say: "With time and patience, the mulberry leaf becomes silk." So, with time and patience and advertising, the small shop becomes the great store.

Mr. Hearst has no use for Mr. Bryan, but Mr. Cleveland has not yet been heard from.

The temperature at El Paso, Texas, is 102 in the shade, with the summer yet to hear from.

Senator Smoot finds it easier to be a Mormon than a senator, but a little difficult to be both.

The prohibitionists are talking about another state ticket. There's nothing like principle to hold a man to a steady course.

Kuesterman of the state board of control is out after Minor's scalp, while Grottofort, of the same aggregation, is ready for any emergency.

There's no telling what will happen when the new senator returns to Wisconsin. If he should swing into line for McGillivray, Davidson and Lenroot would have the appearance of thirty cents.

Chance may have had something to do with Bryan's popularity, but his little paper called The Commoner, has been steadily sawing wood. When the convention meets, the strength of his organization will be discovered.

The ovation awaiting Mr. Bryan when he lands in New York, will satisfy him that "circumstances" beyond his control demand recognition. What creatures of circumstances we are, anyway.

It is gratifying to know that the Milwaukee Journal is lined up and on the loaded wagon early, at least once in its history. The paper's little blizzard for La Follette appeared to flash in the pan.

Senator La Follette has been heard from. His friends are advised to wait until he returns to the state, before deciding whom to support for governor. He evidently doesn't propose to tie up to Lenroot until the situation has been carefully canvassed. The West Superior man may be obliged to run alone. How far would he run?

FOR BUSINESS MEN.

A writer for an eastern paper gives his opinion as to why so many metropolitan papers are taken in the inland cities. He states the fact—namely, that every one who has given the matter any thought knows to be true—that the women are buyers for the home and that they are constantly on the alert for bargains. Then he makes this comparison between the metropolitan and the local press. "Compare the advertisements in foreign papers with those at home. In the foreign paper the woman gets a word-picture of the article advertised, and also the price. It creates a desire to purchase, whether in need of the article or not."

"Now look at a few home advertisements. The shoe man doesn't tell the quality, size, style or price of shoes. The sewing machine man doesn't tell the price, name or what the machine is capable of doing. The wallpaper man doesn't tell anything. The jeweler advertises postal cards at the time of the year when the housewife needs tableware to supply her summer guests. The furniture man says nothing when most families need at least a cot. The butcher says he has good meat, but doesn't say whether it is horse or mule meat, tender spring lamb, big roasts, or juicy beef, luscious steaks, fish or clams. Of course, everybody in town buys their china out of town, because nobody thinks it worth while to tell them they have it."

He may have drawn the picture a little strong, but the facts stated are too often true. The question of judicious advertising is recognized by the city merchant as an art, and he gives it the same careful attention that he does to any other department of buying. He has long since discovered that the people are not interested in the fact that he has the largest store or best stock of goods in the town. What they do want to know is the price of his wares, and if prices are attractive he finds no trouble in filling his store with prospective buyers.

There is just as much art in editing an advertisement as in editing any other department of the paper. It should always contain news of interest to the buying public, and when it does it never fails to draw.

THESE BE YELLOW TIMES

Says the June Century, in the "Topics of the Times" department: The sensationalism of the press is only a part of the sensationalism of the time—a sensationalism which is evidenced in a thousand ways—in the fantastic luxury of the brainless rich; in the speed-madness of automobilists; in the crudeness and violence of current works of fiction; in the vulgarities of the stage; in the increasingly dangerous feats of the great circus, whose programs appeal more and more to a brutal passion for visible escapes from sudden death. The sensationalism of the press, we say, is only a part of that spirit of excess which is rife. The decent members of the community should set their faces against the whole tendency, and against its every example; but, it is of this one duty as to the press that we especially insist upon at the moment. It is the most obvious, the nearest at hand; and, moreover, a blow struck at the "yellowness" of print is a blow at all yellowness.

The "Century" writer has sized up the situation correctly, for the fact is generally recognized that yellow journalism represents but a fragment of the saffron hued sentiment now so prevalent throughout the country. Sensationalism is the order of the day. The greatest attraction of the modern circus is advertised as the "leap to death" or some other dare devil feature where human life is imperiled to gratify the demand for the spectacular.

The magazine which fails to announce in glaring headlines that graft has engulfed some man in public life, or that corporate wealth is a menace to the nation, is regarded as a back number.

The young socialist, "Sinclair," the author of "The Jungle," is advertised throughout the land as a hero in literature, when the fact is that his book is a fabrication of falsehood and misrepresentation; the product of a diseased brain, and a picture of imagination from the pen of an illiterate writer.

The packing house scandal fills the minds, and is rolled under the tongues of the masses like a sweet morsel, while the railroads are generally regarded as corrupt and entitled to but little consideration.

The United States senate, the highest law making body in the land, and the safeguard of the nation, is a byword in the minds of many people and the sentiment is all too prevalent that the services of this conservative body could be dispensed with without loss to the national government.

Socialism is developing rapidly in many parts of the country and the principles of the creed are advocated by many people who are not avowed disciples. Nearly one-third the voting population of Milwaukee was in the socialist column at the last election.

These conditions are abnormal when the fact is considered that the nation is passing through an era of prosperity unparalleled in its history. Crops are abundant; every industry is crowded to its capacity. Labor finds ready employment at good wages, and yet the spirit of unrest and discontent is the ruling spirit. It is true that the revolution going on in the moral and business world is responsible in a measure for these conditions, and yet the cloak of reform covers a multitude of sins which threaten danger to the welfare of the nation.

The pendulum has swung over to the extreme limit and the question soon to be decided will not be a question of reform, but it will be the question of ability for self government.

Party ties and party lines are lightly regarded. Every man his own political guide is the order of the day and this sort of looseness, under the guise of independence, is as dangerous to a republican form of government as disloyalty to the church would be to the religious world.

Conservative democracy is trying to make itself believe that the Bryan of today is not the same Bryan who demanded and secured his platform in the Omaha convention, a few years ago, and so democracy becomes a thing of the past, while a new and untried party comes into the arena and demands attention.

The advocate of "representative government" now in the senate, posing as a republican, aspires to revolutionize the republican party and he has a liberal following. The next two years will decide whether the party has outlived its usefulness, as has its old competitor the democratic party. That the times are yellow is plainly apparent and what the final result will be is a matter of conjecture.

PRESS COMMENT.

Had Good Time With U. C. T.
La Crosse Tribune: "One can almost forget his troubles with a bunch of good fellows in town."

Those Elegant Green Peas
Chicago Tribune: "It is no secret, either, that those elegant green peas are colored artificially."

But It Never Got Far
Milwaukee Sentinel: "However, Harper's Weekly started some sound thinking with its Woodrow Wilson boom."

And That Carmine-Hued Catnip
Chicago Tribune: "There, there is the tomato catnip. You don't suppose it was born with that bright red color, do you?"

A Mesh Underwear Fantasy
Rockford Register-Gazette: "This mesh underwear has its advantages. It makes a handy minnow net, when the bait gives out."

Up to Burbank Now
Exchange: "Isn't it up to Wizard Burbank now to turn out a cactus that looks like meat and tastes like meat and is meat?"

Will Hearst Keep Off?
Evening Wisconsin: "The general boosting of Bryan by the democrats is suggestive of the rush for scarecrows after corn-planting."

Suggests a Bargain
Chicago News: "If he is a good business man Mr. Hearst should hasten to trade his chances for the presidency in 1908 for a bright, new yellow dog."

Mr. Armour Guessed Wrong
Milwaukee News: "It seems that Mr. Armour was in error in 1904 when he declared that 'we are for Roosevelt.' We know where he stands."

Butter For Day's Daily Bread
Milwaukee Journal: "Chancellor Day of Syracuse is again in evidence in favor of the packers. He evidently believes in tickling the hands that feed him."

Not Yet Barred In
Chicago Record-Herald: "Burton of Kansas has not yet gone to jail. Perhaps he is waiting for them to build a jail according to his own specifications."

Get Aboard, Grover.
Exchange: "Henry Watterson and his starved goddess of reform have come out for Bryan. Grover Cleveland might as well make it unanimous."

Right Route for Lively Time
Evansville Re-view: "Another farmer's team took flight on account of an auto Tuesday, and started for Janesville at a high rate of speed."

Some Still Linger Hereabouts.
Racine Journal: "Manaschino cherries for cocktails have been discovered in Pennsylvania, doctored with coal tar dyes to give the entrancing color."

Each Must Wait Its Turn.
Superior Telegram: "The meat packers are diverting attention from Maxim Gorky. It seems that the public cannot give its attention to more than one dirty mess at a time."

Wants Standard Depth For Foam.
Madison Journal: "Now it is proposed to investigate the big breweries. If a standard collar for the schooner could thereby be established, many would consider the much rake justified."

No Monkeying With Religion There.
Pittsburg Gazette-Times: "A Tennessee preacher who said the Bible was a dead letter was chased a mile by his indignant parishioners. The heresy 'trial is too slow for the pious Tennesseans."

Unnoticed, But Plugging Away.
Chicago News: "Other cabinet officers may go seeking higher honors, but Secretary Hitchcock believes in plugging right along putting gratters out of the federal land office in the same old way."

University Training To Be Universal.
Exchange: "The University of Pennsylvania will confer degrees on 545 young men this week. The time seems to be rapidly approaching when a man without a degree will be a good deal of a curiosity in this country."

At Least One Good Ancestor.
Chicago Record-Herald: "Somebody who has been looking into the matter finds that long ago one of King Edward's ancestors was a brick layer. We have always thought he must have had a good, sturdy, honest ancestor back somewhere."

"Dems" Are Getting "Batty."
Milwaukee Free Press: "Nothing stranger than the nomination of William Jennings Bryan in 1908, and his support by a united democracy has occurred even in the checked history of the party that is certainly getting 'batty' over the 'great commoner.' And still, that is the highest of all the possible things now in sight to happen."

Hand Of Fine Italian Outline.
Madison Democrat: "And now the brewers take a hand in the white ribbon movement. They want the saloon to become socially respectable so that families may go there and imbibe of their products. Of course that means that drinking shall become general. Not for America, Mr. Brewer. There are already too many patrons for the few liquor producers."

Scarred; No Longer Waves Torch.
Milwaukee Journal: "And the man has grown. One would think that he had studied Grover Cleveland and the Sphinx and had learned wisdom from both the sage of Princeton and the inanimate inhabitant of the desert which has served as the insignia of silence since the days of the Caesars."

Mr. Bryan weighs his words. He thinks deeply. Many campaigns and great disasters have taught him much. He no longer waves a torch. He has discovered that poverty is no longer an argument when every man who wants work can get it and the land drips with fatness.

He is a better politician than of yore, and it may be a better citizen—certainly a much wiser politician. He is a big man. You can't get away from it.

McGillivray And Reform: Apostates.
Milwaukee News: "Mr. McGillivray has asked Governor Davidson to restrain the pernicious activity of the faithful and loyal 'reformers' that are holding state office and devoting their time to the service of the people in circulating petitions for the man that is 'leading the way' to still greater and higher things. He has called upon Chairman Connor, whose devotion to the cause was instrumental in carrying the day when all seemed lost to resign. He is grieved that La Follette has played false to the primary principle and assumed the role of a 'boss.' Mr. McGillivray, indeed, is in a sad and embarrassing fix. On every hand he finds the prophets and apostles of 'reform' apostates and backsliders. The only thing, apparently for him to do, if Connor and La Follette refuse to resign and if the game wardens and office-holders continue perniciously active, is to withdraw from their organization and take the principles with him. Then, at least, he will have assurance that whatever may befall, the high ideals and the spirit of better things will not perish utterly from the earth."

Founding of Carthage.

Carthage is said to have been founded nearly 900 years before the Christian era by Dido, a colony of Tyrians. The government, at first monarchical, became afterwards republican, and it is commended by Aristotle as one of the most perfect of antiquity. The two chief magistrates, called suffetes, or judges, were elected annually from the first families. The religion was a cruel superstition; and human victims were offered in sacrifice.

Encourages Temperance.

The Bavarian government does not dare to forbid its railway employees to drink beer; but systematic efforts to discourage beer drinking are made, by providing coffee, milk, lemonade and mineral waters at cost price.

Former is suing for $165 Commission, Alleged Due on Sale of Pond Residence.

In Justice Jesse Earle's court this afternoon was called the case of David Watt versus Andrew Pond for the collection of $165, alleged to be due the plaintiff as a 2 per cent commission on the recent sale of the Milwaukee avenue residence of Mr. Pond to Al Jones for the sum of $5,500. A jury of six is hearing the case.

MET A TERRIBLE DEATH ON TRACK

YOUNG MAN NAMED JOHN JUNG-BLUT INSTANTLY KILLED.

AT CEMENT POST FACTORY

Had Just Stepped Out of Building When Switch-Engine Struck Him—
Happened at 2:30 P. M.

John Jungblut, aged twenty years, whose father is employed in the Janesville Machine Co.'s plant, was run down by a switch-engine on the section of the track running alongside the Janesville Cement Post Co.'s plant about half-past two o'clock this afternoon and instantly killed. His head and arms were completely severed and his body was otherwise horribly mangled. The young man and a companion had just been inside the factory to make inquiries concerning the possibility of obtaining employment and it is believed that the terrible accident happened just as Jungblut stepped out of the door and onto the track; that the locomotive was on him before he had an opportunity to spring back. There seems to have been no eye-witness of the tragedy. The father, John Jungblut, lives on Ringold street.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Twenty-five Days for Patsy: For drunkenness Patsy Griffin was yesterday committed to the county jail for 25 days. Sentence was suspended in the case of Frank Bents in order to give him a chance to leave the city with all possible haste.

Complain of Dumping Rubbish: Complaints have reached the ears of the city authorities that certain residents of Clark street have been making a dumping ground of Home Park avenue. City Marshal Appleby and Officer Brown have already called on some of the offenders and pointed out to them the error of their ways.

Hurried Exit to Oklahoma: Miss Helen Miller of Beloit, who had been sojourning here for a fortnight, was sufficiently indiscreet and indecorous to attract the attention of the police and had she not made a hurried exit for Oklahoma in the early morning one day this week, she would have been placed behind the bars.

Ball-Players in City: Frank Aiken, who is playing with the Green Bay team of the state league, Charles Mohr, who pitched last season for Beloit and who is now playing with Eau Claire, and Mike Birmingham, who has also been playing with Eau Claire, were in the city last evening. The Green Bay team is playing in Sheboygan today.

Judgment by Default: In municipal court yesterday Judge Pfiffel gave judgment by default to the plaintiff for the sum of $127.40 and costs in the action of A. L. Fisher vs. S. L. Johns, brought to recover commissions on sales of tobacco leaf. The defendant made an appearance several days ago when the case was first called and continued but apparently decided subsequently not to make any contest.

Rubber Tires for Sweepers? Guests at some of the hotels and residents of the business sections of the city are said to have complained to the aldermen that the noise of the machine disturbs their slumbers. But one thing remains to be done, in view of these lamentations, and that is to have the rags shod with gum-shoes, rubber tires put on the wheels, and a photograph that will play soft lullaby songs and drown any rude squeals and jarring sounds, attached. These same parties are also said to incline to the view that the streets are being kept too clean—that they ought to be swept but once or twice each week instead of every night. The man and team work eight hours every night and the man gets 40 cents an hour. For fear that the driver may get rich too suddenly the city may advertise for bids and let the work by contract, at an early date.

Fleming Returning: Captain Fleming of the local Salvation Army post is returning from a visit in the east and will take charge here again Thursday evening. Lieutenant Perry has been in charge during the commanding officer's absence.

Deaf Mutes to Farms: A passenger coach load of deaf and dumb children, about fifty in number, dependent on the state and students at Delavan, passed through here over the St. Paul road this morning en route to the prairie regions west of Madison, where they will be distributed among the charitably-inclined farmers and enjoy a "two-weeks" outing.

Miss Decker Graduates: Miss Harriet Decker will graduate from the elocution department of the Chicago Conservatory, Chicago, tonight. Her portion of the program will be rendition of the portion scene from Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet." Miss Ethel Gainer and Miss Bernice Madeline Wells, both known here, will also graduate.

Card Party: The Gazette was misinformed regarding the entertainment to be given for Dr. Charles Sutherland and Miss Anna Valentine by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Valentine Friday evening. It is to be a card party and not a "shower."

Trophies on Display: The handsome trophies for the approaching state golf tournament here are on display in the window of Baker's drugstore. The new Fairview Club, recently organized in Fond du Lac, has inquired through its secretary regarding the possibility of entering some of its members in this big event.

Porous Glass. In porous glass, which is made in France, the holes are so small that neither dust nor draught can enter, and yet the ventilation is said to be excellent.

Shorthand Inventor.

Ben Pittman, whose system of shorthand is used more than any other in the United States, is still living in eastern Cincinnati. He is 87 years old.

REXFORD PRESIDENT OF FIRST NATIONAL

Elected to Highest Position by Directors Monday Evening—W. O. Newhouse Becomes Cashier.

At their meeting Monday evening the directors of the First National bank of this city elected John G. Rexford as president and W. O. Newhouse as cashier. Mr. Rexford has been identified with the institution since 1868 and has been cashier for the past sixteen years. Mr. Newhouse resigned his position as district attorney and entered the bank as assistant cashier early this spring. The office he held was but temporary, so that no other changes in the banking force were necessary. Andrew Pond remains as teller; Harry Haggart, as head bookkeeper; Howard Ruger, as bookkeeper; and William McCue as messenger. Samuel Cobb is the new member of the board of directors.

CASHIER W. O. NEWHOUSE

The First National is the oldest banking institution in Janesville. It was established in August, 1855, and made a national bank in 1863. The original incorporators were—W. H. Trippe, who is still living; J. F. Willard, E. A. Poole, Jonathan Cary, Warren Norton, S. G. Williams, F. S. Eldred, L. J. Barrows, O. W. Norton, J. B. Doe, W. A. Lawrence, J. D. Rexford, J. H. Ogilvie, and Z. P. Burdick. Its first board of directors as a national bank consisted of E. B. Doe, S. G. Williams, Joseph Spaulding, K. White, H. S. Conger, F. S. Eldred, and J. D. Rexford. The present directors are: L. B. Carle, Thomas O. Howe, G. H. Ruml, J. G. Rexford, H. Richardson, S. C. Cobb, and A. P. Lovejoy.

Extensive improvements recently commenced in the building on Milwaukee street will include the entire remodeling of the second floor and the conversion of portions of it into offices and directors' rooms. The apartment above the vaults, heretofore used for a directors' room, is to be supplied with desks and other equipment and used as a part of the banking room. The entire front is to be rebuilt. Along with other changes a savings department is to be opened on July 1.

PASSED AWAY IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mrs. H. C. Wilson Died Monday Morning at the Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. J. D. King.

Mrs. H. C. Wilson, who for many years was a resident of Janesville and whose friends in this community were legion, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. D. King, in Washington, D. C., Monday morning. Besides the daughter she leaves two sons—Frank and Harry Wilson. The remains are to arrive in Janesville at 11:40 o'clock Thursday morning and will be taken direct to Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mary Wessall Wilson, who passed away here Saturday, was born at Palmyra, Wis., September 14, 1836. She was married to Marvin Wilson at Palmyra fifty-four years ago and was the mother of six children, five of whom are now living: Frank Wilson of Rockford, Ill.; Adine Wilson of California; Mrs. Mae Phoenix of Rockford, Ill.; and Mrs. Effie Sprout of Janesville. Nineteen grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren also survive her. From childhood she was a member of the M. E. church, until November, 1900, when she united with the Mary Kimball mission. She was devotedly attached to the mission, making its interests her own. She loved its services and in spite of much sickness and extreme weakness from which she suffered for many years she was never absent from its appointed meetings when she could possibly attend them. Her earnest prayers and confident testimonies will be long remembered by many privileged to hear them. Her life was preeminently Christian; not of the lips alone—it sprang from her heart and radiated through her entire life, which was a benediction to her family and friends. Though often suffering with pain she was always patient and never complained, but was often mindful of the work and time others devoted to her comfort. Funeral services at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sprout, were held yesterday.

Excursion. C. & N. W. will run excursion Janesville to Lake Geneva and return, Wednesday, June 27th. Round trip, only $1. Leave Janesville 8:00 a. m.

Abattoir for Horses. It is reported that the consumption of horse meat in Neuremberg, where a few years ago it was quite insignificant, has now increased so greatly that the facilities for horse slaughtering at the municipal abattoir have become insufficient, and the city council has been obliged to consider the construction of a new abattoir for horses, the cost of which is estimated at $43,000.

POSSIBLY HUNDRED WILL GO TO HORICON

Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration of Odd Fellow Lodge and Two Members.

Seventy-five at least and possibly a hundred members of the various Odd Fellow lodges of the city will go to Horicon on the twenty-ninth for a great picnic and barbecue. The celebration is in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the Horicon lodge and golden anniversary of the membership of two prominent "fellows," Martin Rich and J. A. Roper. There will be usual and extraordinary picnic features and one of the largest barbecued dinners ever served in the state. The Fourth of July celebration has been abandoned and the energies of the city put on the Odd Fellows' festivities. The trip from Janesville will be over the North Western road as far as Minnesota Junction and from there over the St. Paul. One of two coaches will be attached to the regular trains to carry the delegation.

MISS GLADYS MAY PARSONS TO BE WEDDED ON JUNE 27

Daughter of Mrs. Frederick Parsons of Sandusky, Ohio, Who Formerly Lived in Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Watt this morning received an invitation from Mrs. Watt's sister, Mrs. Frederick E. Parsons, to the wedding of her daughter, Gladys May, to Edward Allison Nettleton. The ceremony is to take place at Grace Episcopal church, Sandusky, Ohio, on the evening of Wednesday, June 27. The bride-to-be is a sister of Miss Fannie Parsons, who visited here last winter. Her mother, Mrs. Parsons, sang in the choir of the Janesville Presbyterian church for many years and is at present teacher of music in the public schools of Sandusky.

Reynolds-Jones. Miss Caroline Marie Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reynolds of Beloit, formerly of this city, was married yesterday afternoon to Ernest J. Jones of Chicago. Rev. Joseph Carden, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at the home of the bride in the presence of only the immediate relatives.

Does Your Coffee Agree With You?

We say your coffee because there are so many different kinds and combinations and not all persons can drink the same kind.

For some it may be too strong; for others too acid; for others too oily and for still others it may be too heavy.

These are the reasons that some otherwise intelligent persons suffer from drinking their favorite beverage. You need not suffer any longer if you will allow us to suggest a blending that will agree with you.

Our "Golden Blend" 25 cents the pound, is having a large sale because it is delicious—not heavy—but healthful and invigorating.

A RARE INVESTMENT

We have for sale a stock and dairy farm splendidly located within 1½ miles of town on Burlington railroad in Grant County, which is offered by the owner who has lived in it most of his life and brought it to a high state of cultivation. His family has grown up and he is desirous of retiring from active life. Following is a description of the property and the price:

FOR SALE—A first-class dairy and stock farm of 815 acres in Grant Co., Wis.; 1½ miles from town on the Burlington R. R.; 300 acres under plow, 50 acres seeded to rye, 40 acres clover and timothy; good bearing orchard and garden with small fruit; all in good state of cultivation, balance in pasture and meadow, with good running water and well fenced; a good 7-room house with hydrant in kitchen; good milk house 16x18, with cement tanks, will hold milk from 40 cows; with spring water flowing continually; good sheep barn 16x64; 2-story granary 18x32; corn crib 16x32; driveway between granary and crib; hen-house 14x16; hog house 16x32; hog house 16x36, with cook room and corn crib; barn 62x64, stalls for 12 horses, stalls water piped from never failing spring at an elevation of 200 feet; hydrants at house and yard; will be sold on reasonable terms; price, $25 per acre.

The following letter from the owner gives a good idea of the farm: "In answer to yours of recent date would say: The farm land is most all level, some a little rolling but not much, as it is what is known as the Cincinnati bottoms, but never overflows. There are about 350 acres fenced, with about 300 acres under plow; balance pasture; 215 acres fenced, part blue grass, and the balance island pasture and timber—all bottom land; also 40 acres bottom hay land, all level; this overflows in high water, but never fails of producing a good crop of hay; and 100 acres fenced in pasture, 60 acres of it on creek bottom, with spring creek running through, and 40 acres on hill-side with timber on same and two springs, and 110 acres on side hill with good timber and with good springs on same, making good blue grass pasture. The 215 acres has a lake on it fed by springs and a good place for fishing. Any other information will be gladly given.

SUPREME JUDGES REVEAL SCANDAL

ALLEGED ATTORNEY CONSPIRED TO SECURE $10,000.

SHOWED COPY OF DECISION

Charge Is Made That Alliance Was Formed to Secure Money from Litigants to Reverse Court Opinion.

Springfield, Ill., June 13.—The story of an attempt to collect $10,000 from litigants before the supreme court under a promise that the decision of the court would be influenced for the litigant by paying the money was made public by the court itself Tuesday. It looks like the start of the most sensational happenings in the history of Illinois jurisprudence.

The court proceedings took the form of an order on Richard C. S. Reaugh, state's attorney for Clay county, to show cause next Friday why he should not be debarred for the part he took in the attempt. The order was entered in the most impressive manner the rules of the highest legal tribunal of the state permit.

Development of Scandal.

This is the latest but by no means the last development in the scandal growing out of the Hudson case, which started in Clay county and has grown until it has involved the entire state of Illinois.

The charge against Reaugh is that he conspired with H. N. Bradford, claim agent for the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern railway, to obtain $10,000 first from one side of the will case and then from the other, on the plea that he and his friends in Springfield could influence the decision of the supreme court in a case which involves over $100,000.

Had Copy of Decision.

In proof that he could keep his part of the agreement, Bradford showed to the lawyers of both sides a copy of the court's decision in a case long in advance of the time when it was to be handed down from the bench.

The members of the august tribunal would not be so badly stirred up about the matter had the Bradford copy been the wrong one or even an abstract of the right one. The fact is, however, it was not only a correct copy, but a complete one and exactly what the court would have handed down had the matter not been brought to its attention before the decision was rendered. So it has held the matter up ever since.

Tells Two Stories.

The question the justices are asking is, where did Bradford get that copy? He has told two stories about it. One that the justices are inclined to believe, and which bears the imprint of probability if not of actual truth, is that it was furnished him by one of the justices' own clerks. The other is that he picked it up accidentally on a Baltimore & Ohio train. This last does not sound well, and was told when Bradford found he was getting into trouble. As if conscious of its improbability he added he had a man who could swear he saw Bradford find the paper, but did not say who the man was.

Want to Find Bradford.

Just now the justices would much like to find Bradford and ask him some pertinent questions. June 7, while they were conducting an investigation, a secret rule for contempt was entered on Bradford and a list of questions to be answered by him filed. One of them reads:

"To whom did you refer when you stated to B. D. Monroe that you procured a printed copy of the clerk of a judge of the supreme court?"

But Bradford is not here to answer that or any other questions. He got wind of the proceedings, perhaps from the same source from which he got the opinion, and left Illinois behind him. At the railway offices they say they do not know where he is. It has been pretty well demonstrated he is not in the state.

ALLEGED WOMAN SLEW GIRL

Domestic in Wealthy Brewer's Family Said to Be Victim of Mistress' Temper.

St. Louis, S. D., June 13.—A sensation was caused here Tuesday by the arrest of Mrs. Moses Kaufmann, wife of a wealthy brewer, on the charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Agnes Polreis, who was employed as a domestic in the Kaufmann home. The girl died several days ago and was buried at Parkston, her home town.

Believing that her death was due to unnatural causes, interested persons had the body exhumed and examined by five physicians.

On her head and body were found numerous cuts and bruises.

It was discovered that her lower limbs were swathed in cloth, and when the bandages were removed the flesh had the appearance of having been scalded. This is alleged to have been due to attempts to revive her after she had been beaten into an unconscious condition.

It is alleged that the girl died as a result of beatings administered by Mrs. Kaufmann and that these beatings were due to Mrs. Kaufmann's inability to control her temper.

To Burn Condemned Meat.

Berlin, June 13.—The municipality of Berlin has decided to build a crematory for condemned meat, at a cost of about $300,000.

SOURCE OF WHITE PLAGUE

Mr. Ames Pleads for Proper Inspection in Name of Countless Thousands Carried Away by Tuberculosis.

Washington, June 13.—An echo of the Neill-Reynolds report on the packing houses of Chicago was heard Tuesday in the house, when Mr. Mondell (Wyo.) in a speech precipitated discussion of the whole question of government inspection.

Mr. Mondell observed that the house of commons in England Monday had under consideration the subject of American meat products which, he said, called attention to the far-reaching and disastrous effect of the present agitation, but to what he declared to be an unfortunate misconception of the facts and of the nature and character of criticisms made officially or unofficially of packing house methods. Mr. Mondell said:

"I consider it most unfortunate for the great packing and cattle industries; for the peace of mind of our people; for our good name abroad, that it should have been deemed necessary to place before the country in a manner calculated to magnify their contents certain reports which bear on their faces the stamp of hypercritical criticism, if not visionary bias."

Mr. Slayden (Tex.) condemned the methods used in placing the Neill-Reynolds report before the public. "For days," he said, "the country has been disturbed by the revelations made by a special commission of the filthy condition of Chicago slaughter houses."

"This exposure of what I do not doubt was an almost criminal state of indecency had to come some time, and I hope will result in good."

Should Protect Consumers. "The consumer is entitled to protection. He pays big round prices and ought to get good, clean, wholesome food for his money."

"I am not speaking a word of sympathy for the packers. Whatever of offense there is, has come from them, and while they may lose millions by the agitation they will have millions left, most of it sweated from the brow of the cattle producers, who finally have to 'pay the shot.'"

"So far as the report is concerned, all the harm has been done already that can be done. We are now concerned for the remedy. The facts ought to be known at once. Another and an impartial committee of investigation should be sent to Chicago at once to investigate and report." "The prosperity and the comfort of too many people are tied up in the matter to let it drag. I do not know how far under the 'restraints of the constitution congress can go in the regulation of this great business, but I do know that somewhere in the federal union, in the state of Illinois, or in the city of Chicago; or in other cities, a power must be found which can and will compel the packers to do business in a way that will restore the confidence of consumers, or the distress among ranchmen and farmers, which is now acute, will become chronic and may precipitate a panic in the whole business world. The remedy must be quickly found and rigidly applied."

No Sympathy for Packers. Mr. Ames (Mass.) followed in a defense of the president and in favor of the packers paying the cost of inspection.

"I have no sympathy whatever for the packers who deliberately brought this storm of righteous indignation against their methods and upon themselves, and I have the greatest sympathy for the executive who, to rectify a crying evil, was forced, much against his desires and earnest appeal, to make public the report that he well knew would reap a whirlwind of horror and reproach for one of our greatest industries."

"Not content with the shameless acquisition of countless fortunes from tainted sources, safe in their belief of their own immunity, arrogant in their escape from the processes of courts, violators of our laws against illegal combinations, spreaders of the white plague, slaughterers of humanity—in order to save a paltry two millions—by threats of lowering the price of cattle, they would drive their very victims to their own defense, and risk, yes, bring ruin to every cattle raiser in the land. To provide that the government should pay the cost of inspection would be to completely nullify the purpose of the bill."

Wrong Should Be Righted.

"We are agreed that a great wrong has been perpetrated upon humanity, that a great hardship has rightly or wrongly been placed on large and varied industrial and agricultural interests; we are agreed that all meats should be properly inspected and that the wrong done and damage caused can be remedied none too quickly. Then cease trying to emasculate the Beveridge bill, and in the justice of right and equity and power, in the interest of the struggling, toiling humanity of men overwork from incessant labor, of the women and children of to-day, and in the memory of the countless throng that passed away of a yesterday, in the clutch of the great white plague, insist upon a complete and rigidly enforced inspection by making the packers pay the cost thereof."

How hard it is to do easy things in hard ways—and how easy to do hard things in easy ways—such as the want ad way!

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

A tornado swept over Tifton, Ga., damaging more than 50 houses.

About 400 feet of the long railroad trestle connecting Galveston, Island with the main land was destroyed by fire.

The special session of the California legislature convened on June 2, to enact laws made necessary by the earthquake and fire of April 18, has adjourned. The governor has received 65 bills passed by both houses.

Allege Roads Cause Overflow.

Bellefonte, Ill., June 13.—Indictments were returned Tuesday against the Terminal Railway association, the St. Louis Bridge Terminal railway, Big Four, Illinois Central, Louisville & Nashville, Southern, Mobile & Ohio, Baltimore & Ohio, Vandalla and Burlington roads on charges of obstructing Chokolia creek with bridges and pilings so as to cause the water to rise and overflow the American bottoms and damage property.

Boy Is Abducted.

Philadelphia, June 13.—Called from the class room by the announcement that his mother had been injured and was seriously ill in a hospital, Charles F. Muth, a seven-year-old boy, was turned over to an unknown man by a messenger boy Tuesday and abducted.

"Light counsel indeed, such as might be looked for from high blood. Yet it may not be taken, since self slaughter is a deadly sin."

"I see little difference between it," said Rosamund, "and the stretching out of our necks to the swords of friends. I tell you that, rather than fall into the hands of the Payims, I will dare that sin."

And she laid her hand upon the dagger-belt that was hidden in her robe.

Then again the abbess spoke.

"To you, daughter, I cannot forbid the deed, but to me I do forbid it, and to them I show another if a more piteous way of escape from the last shame of womanhood. Some of us are old and withered and have naught to fear but death, but others are still young and fair. To these I say, when the end is nigh, let them take steel and sword and bosom and sent themselves here in this chapel, red with their own blood and made loathsome to the sight of man. Then will the end come upon them quickly, and they will pass hence unstained to be the brides of heaven."

Now a great groan of horror went up from those miserable women.

Yet one by one, except the aged among them, they came up to the abbess and swore that they would obey her in this as in everything, while the abbess said that herself she would lead them down that dreadful road of pain and mutilation. Yes, said Rosamund, who declared that she would die undisfigured as God had made her.

Then again they got to their knees and sang the "Misere."

Presently above their mournful chant the sound of loud, insistent knockings echoed down the vaulted roofs. They sprang up, screaming:

"The Saracens are here! Give us knives! Give us knives!"

Rosamund drew the dagger from its sheath.

"Wait awhile!" cried the abbess. "These may be friends, not foes. Sister Ursula, go to the door and seek tidings."

The sister, an aged woman, obeyed with tottering steps, and reaching the massive portal, nudged the guichet or lattice and asked with a quivering voice:

"Who are you that knock?"

Presently the answer came in a woman's silvery tones:

"I am the Queen-Sybil, with her ladies."

"And what would you with us, O queen? The right of sanctuary?"

"Nay, I bring with me some envoys from Saladin, who would have speech with the lady named Rosamund D'Arcy, who is among you."

Now at these words Rosamund fled to the altar and stood there, still holding the naked dagger in her hand.

"Let her not fear," went on the silvery voice, "for no harm shall come to her against her will. Admit us, holy abbess, we beseech you in the name of Christ."

Then the abbess said, "Let us receive the queen with such dignity as we may." Motioning to the nuns to take their appointed seats in the choir, she placed herself in the great chair at the head of them, while behind her at the raised altar stood Rosamund, the bare knife in her hand.

The door was opened, and through it swept a strange procession. First came the beauteous queen wearing her luscious of royalty, but with a black veil upon her head. Next followed ladies of her court—twelve of them—trembling with fright, but splendidly appareled, and after these three stern and turbaned Saracens clad in mail, their jeweled scimitars at their sides. Then appeared a procession of women, most of them draped in mourning and leading scared children by the hand—the wives, sisters and widows of nobles, knights and bourgeois of Jerusalem. Last of all marched a hundred or more of captains and warriors, among them Wulf, headed by Sir Balian and ended by the patriarch Hieracius in his gorgeous robes.

On swept the queen up the length of the long church, and as she came the abbess and her nuns rose and bowed to her, while one offered her the chair of state that was set apart to be used by the bishop in his visitations.

"Nay," said the queen, "mock me with no honorable seat who come here as a humble suppliant."

So down she went upon the marble floor with all her ladies and the following women, while the solemn Saracens looked at her wondering and the knights and nobles massed themselves behind.

"What can we give you, O queen," asked the abbess, "who have nothing left save our treasure, to which you are most welcome, our honor and our lives?"

"Alas!" answered the royal lady. "Alas that I must say it! I come to ask the life of one of you."

"Of whom, O queen?"

Sybil lifted her head, and with her outstretched arm pointed to Rosamund, who stood above them all by the high altar.

For a moment Rosamund turned pale, then spoke in a steady voice:

"May what service can my poor life be to you, O queen, and by whom is it sought?"

Thrice Sybil strove to answer, and at last murmured:

"I cannot. Let the envoys give her the letter, if she is able to read their tongue."

"I am able," answered Rosamund, and a Saracen Emir drew forth a roll and laid it against his forehead, then gave it to the abbess, who brought it to Rosamund. With her dagger blade she cut its silk, opened it and read aloud, always in the same quiet voice, translating as she read:

In the name of Allah the one, the merciful, to my lords, the Princes of Baabes, Rosamund D'Arcy by name, now a fugitive hidden in a convent of the Franks in the city of Kuds, the holy city of Jerusalem:

Nice—all my promises to you I have performed, and since for your sake I spared the lives of your cousins, the twin knights. But you have repaid me with ingratitude and treachery, after the manner of those of your false and accursed faith, and have fled from me. I promised you also, again and yet again, that if you attempted this thing death should be your portion. No longer, therefore, are you the Princess of Baabes; but only an escaped Christian slave and as such doomed to die whenever my sword reaches you.

Of my vision concerning you, which caused me to bring you to the east from England, you know well. Repeat it in your heart, before you answer. That vision told me that by your nobleness and sacrifice you should save such of my many. I demanded that you should be brought back to me, and the request was refused—why, it matters not. Now I understand the reason—that this was so ordained. I demand no more that force should be used to you. I demand that you shall come of your own free will to suffer the bitter and shameful reward of your sin, or, if you so desire, hide where you are of your own free will, and be dealt with as God shall decree.

This hangs upon your judgment. If you come and ask it of me, I will consider the question of the sparing of Jerusalem and its inhabitants. If you refuse to come, I will certainly put every one of them to the sword, save such of the women and children as may be kept for slaves. Decide, then, niece, and quickly, whether you will return with my envoys or hide where they find you.

MUSUF SALAH-ED-DIN.

Rosamund finished reading, and the letter fluttered from her hand down to the marble floor. Then the queen said:

"Lady, we ask this sacrifice of you in the name of these and all their fellows." And she pointed to the women and children behind her.

"And my life?" asked Rosamund aloud. "It is all I have. When I have paid it away I shall be beggared." And her eyes wandered to where the tall shape of Wulf stood by a pillar of the church.

"Perchance Saladin will be merciful," hazarded the queen.

"Why should he be merciful?" answered Rosamund, "who has always warned me that if I escaped from him and was recaptured certainly I must die? Nay, he will offer me Islam or death, which means—death by the rope or in some worse fashion."

"But if you stay here you must die," pleaded the queen, "or at best fall into the hands of the soldiers. Oh, lady, your life is but one life, and with it you can buy those of 80,000 souls!"

"Is that so sure?" asked Rosamund. "The sultan has made no promise; he says only that if I pray it of him he will consider the question of sparing Jerusalem."

RHEUMATISM

ALMOST AS COMMON IN SUMMER AS IN WINTER.

While the damp, cold, changing weather of Winter intensifies the pains and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism, it is by no means a winter disease exclusively. Through the long months of Summer its wandering pains and twitching nerves are felt by those in whose blood the uric acid, which produces the disease, has accumulated.

Rheumatism is a disease that involves the entire system. Its primary cause results from the failure of the eliminative organs, the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels, to carry out of the system the urea, or natural refuse matter. This coming in contact with the different acids of the body forms uric acid which is taken up and absorbed by the blood. This acid causes fermentation of the blood, making it sour and unfit for properly nourishing the body, and as this vital stream goes to every nook and corner of the body, the poison is distributed to all parts. The nervous system weakens from lack of rich, pure blood, the skin becomes feverish and swollen, the stomach and digestion are affected, the appetite fails and a general diseased condition of the entire system is the result.

Not only is Rheumatism the most painful of all diseases, with its swollen, stiff joints, throbbing muscles and stinging nerves, but it is a formidable and dangerous trouble. If the uric acid is allowed to remain in the blood, and the disease becomes chronic, chalky deposits form at the joints, and they are rendered immovable and stiff, and the patient left a helpless cripple for life. Every day the poison remains in the system the disease gets a firmer hold. The best time to get rid of Rheumatism is in warm weather; because then the blood takes on new life and the skin is more active and can better assist in the elimination of the poisons. With the proper remedy to force the acid out of the blood, and at the same time build up and strengthen the Liver, Kidneys, Bowels and other organs of the body, Rheumatism can be permanently cured. External applications relieve the pain and temporarily reduce the inflammation, and for this reason are desirable, but they cannot have any effect on the disease. The blood is poisoned and the blood must be treated before a cure can be effected.

S. S. S., a remedy made from roots, herbs and barks, is the best treatment for Rheumatism. It goes into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by neutralizing the acid and driving it out, and building up the sour blood so it can supply nourishment and strength to every part of the body, it cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. is the only safe cure for the disease; being purely vegetable, it will not injure the system in the least, as do those medicines which contain Potash or some other mineral ingredient. S. S. S. tones up every part of the body by its fine tonic properties.

While cleansing the blood of all poisons it builds up the appetite and digestion, soothes the excited nerves, reduces all inflammation, relieves pain and completely cures Rheumatism in every form—Muscular, Inflammatory, Articular or Sciatic. If you are worried with the nagging pains of Rheumatism, do not wait for it to become chronic, but begin the use of S. S. S. and purge the blood of every particle of the poison. Last Summer I had a severe attack of Induratory Rheumatism in the knees, from which I was unable to leave my room for several months. I was treated by two doctors and also tried different kinds of liniments and medicines, which seemed to relieve me from pain for awhile, but at the same time I was not any nearer getting well. One day while reading a paper I saw an advertisement of S. S. S. for Rheumatism. I decided to give it a trial, which I did at once. After I had taken three bottles I felt a great deal better, and I continued to take it regularly until I was entirely cured. I now feel better than I have for years.

The use of incubators in the hatching of eggs is not a new process. On the contrary, it dates back to the ancient Egyptians who often hatched eggs of various fowls in clay ovens heated to the proper temperature. With the dying out of the Egyptians, the science of incubation, like so many of their other arts, went with them, and it was thought that it was one of the lost arts until Reamur regained it in the last century.

COAL COMPANY IS ALLOWED EXTRAS

SECURES $17,000 PER MONTH FOR ALLED SERVICE.

RAILROAD DOES THE WORK

Crews of Pennsylvania Perform Labor for Which Berwind-White Concern Settles at the Rate of $700 Monthly.

Philadelphia, June 13.—The Berwind-White Coal Mining company was the issue before the interstate commerce commission when it resumed its investigation Tuesday into the relations of railroads to coal and oil interests.

Probably the most important fact brought out was that the coal company is allowed seven cents a ton by the railroad company for handling its cars on the Harborside pier. This allowance gives the coal company about $17,000 a month for this service. The work is performed, however, by Pennsylvania railroad crews with railroad locomotives for which the coal company makes monthly settlements with the railroad, the amount of the monthly bill being something over $700.

Simply Guess at Weight. Charles Heebner, counsel for the Berwind-White company, aroused the ire of the commissioners when he told them coal loaded into the bunkers of steamships was paid for by estimated weight and that there was no way of determining the quantity of coal that remained in a barge when the steamship did not take the entire load.

Commissioner Cockrell suggested that counsel was evasive which Mr. Heebner indignantly denied. "We have nothing to evade," he declared, "but I don't know how you are going to find out what you are trying to learn, because we have no way of knowing it ourselves."

"Well, we will stagger along the best we can," was Commissioner Clements' comment. Company Gets Cars. It developed through the testimony of Frederick MacOwen, treasurer of the company, that during a period when cars were scarce E. J. Berwind made arrangements with the Pennsylvania railroad by which his company secured 1,000 individual cars, several hundred of which had been in the service of the railroad.

Mr. MacOwen detailed the history of the Berwind-White company and explained the lease of Harborside pier. Allow Claims for Delay. R. L. Franklin, assistant freight agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, was one of the witnesses. Through him it was shown that out of seven claims for coal lost in transit, four made by Weston, Dodson & Co. were not granted and three made by the Keystone Coal and Coke company were allowed. The Keystone company's claims were allowed for delay en route, Mr. Franklin said. But while there might have been delay in the case of the other claims it was likely that they occurred at destination for which the consignee was probably responsible.

German Crown Prince as Boy. Several anecdotes are current in the foreign press concerning the German crown prince as a boy. According to one of these shortly after Prince Bismarck was dismissed the little boy was talking to his father and in the course of conversation said, with childish naivete: "Father, they say that now you will be able to tell the people what to do all by yourself. You'll enjoy that, won't you?" Unfortunately history does not record the Kaiser's reply.

Rare English Coins. A collection of about 300 English crowns from the time of Edward VI. to Victoria, was sold in London recently. A James I. crown brought £19 10s. and two Charles I. crowns, dated 1625 and 1632, £25 10s and £22, respectively.

Use of Sugar in Arabia. In Arabia the higher classes use sugar in tea and coffee in their houses, but in the coffee shops in the bazaar, where hundreds of people gather in the evening to talk and drink coffee, a cheaper grade of coffee is generally consumed, made of coffee husks principally, and in this drink sugar is seldom used.

May Sutton.

World's Greatest Woman Tennis Player Off to England Again.

Displaying great fairness where an opponent is concerned, sturdy Miss May Sutton of Pasadena, Cal., the present holder of the all England women's championship and American ex-champion, has gone to London to defend her claim to the English honors.

Miss Sutton won the English championship last season by defeating Miss D. K. Douglass, the defender, setless in the challenge match. Shortly before the match the English woman had wrenched her right arm while at practice. It was the opinion of the English followers of the sport that had their champion been in the best of trim Miss Sutton would have possibly fared differently. Appreciating the apparent cloud on her title, Miss Sutton made her plans to again visit London and defend the championship against the winner of the tournament on the Wimbledon courts.

Before sailing for England the American girl arranged to play in many of the eastern tournaments. In this round of play she was accompanied by two of her sisters, all of whom are experts with the lawn tennis racket.

English Lawn Tennis, the current issue of which has just been received in this country, gives a ranking for the season about to begin. In the list of women players the American girl is rated first, with a remarkable record. For the three leading championships of Great Britain which she won Miss Sutton is credited with winning 16 matches, 32 sets and a total of 204 games. She did not meet defeat in any match or lose a single set in all of these contests and only lost seventy-five games, which do not figure in the final result. Her average for this brilliant showing was .910, which is not even approached by any of the women or men lawn tennis experts. The average of Miss Douglass, ex-champion, for approximately the same play is .839.

The English rating of the men players also includes the Americans who contested in the international of last year. H. L. Doherty, their champion, heads the list, followed by Beals C. Wright (American), Norman E. Brooks (Australian), S. H. Smith, Holcombe Ward (American), William A. Larned (American) and A. W. Gore. William J. Clothier is rated seventeenth.

When Miss Sutton was in the heyday of her glory upon the English courts last season her reputation as a lawn tennis player became almost a household word. From one end of the United Kingdom to the other tennis is almost a universal sport, and from princes to petty clerks all play at the game. So wonderful was the racket work of the American girl that even the music hall artists found time to pun and joke about her supremacy and to interpolate songs and verses bearing upon her prowess. One of these songs, to the tune of "May, May, May," which was in vogue in London last season, is as follows:

There's a lady over the way From the west of the great U. S. A. Drive, volley and service With puzzling curve is To her but the merest child's play. The name of this lady is May. She studied out west, so they say. Some wish they could slaughter The tutor that taught her Such quite irresistible play.

O May, May, May! The girl from the great U. S. A. She makes the white "slazengers" (ball) lightning passengers. Slaves that her will must obey, With a muscular force that outrivals The horse. She makes the lightest corset. She aspires, like her nation, to lick all creation. Does May, May, May!

So great is the splash she has made. That the car has requested her aid. So the malicious rover, Potemkin, gave over And Lincolnton ventured a raid. Why, look at the Wimbledon stand! It was hit by a drive from her hand. Not a stick's now remaining. And Palmer's complaining Miss Sutton costs more than the band.

O May, May, May! The girl from the great U. S. A. They say that Doherty is getting quite shifty (jealous) At seeing some one else making hay. She mocks at the sun, and until she has won The thunder keeps out of the way. For its bolts are a joke when compared With the stroke Of May, May, May!

When Detroit Hit the Toboggan. In 1888, the year after winning the championship, Detroit went to the bad for fair and lost seventeen straight games.

Life imprisonment at the government penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth was the sentence of Lizzie Cardish, the Indian girl who pleaded guilty to setting fire to the reservation school at Oneida, Wis.

BAD WIND AND HAIL STORM IN MONTANA

Fort Assiniboine Is Reported Seriously Damaged While Every Window in Havre Is Broken.

Anaconda, Mont., June 12.—A tornado in Chouteau county, Mont., has destroyed an immense amount of property.

It is reported that Fort Assiniboine is seriously damaged. The country is a stock-growing region, and the loss is difficult to estimate.

The damage reported reaches $100,000. Havre, Mont., June 13.—At two o'clock Tuesday afternoon a heavy wind storm broke here causing considerable damage and injuring three persons.

The wind was accompanied by heavy rain and hail, the hail stones being of enormous size.

Almost every window in town was broken, the Great Northern shops and roundhouse especially suffering in this respect.

Engines standing outside the roundhouse had their headlights broken by the hail.

Eight coaches were unroofed and a string of cars was blown off a siding.

The roof of the two-story building occupied by the Havre Commercial company was blown away and one side of the building caved in.

The persons injured were on the streets, and were hit by falling missiles. It is reported here that severe damage was done in the surrounding country.

PACKERS GUILTY OF ACCEPTING REBATES

Agreement Made Before Rates Were Advanced Is Held to Be No Mitigation.

Kansas City, Mo., June 13.—Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Cudahy & Co., and the Nelson Morris Packing company were found guilty in the United States district court here Tuesday of accepting rebates from the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway on export shipments on packing house products. The case was given to the jury at 10:40. The verdict was returned at 11:40.

The specific case considered, which was practically identical with the others, was that charging Cudahy & Co. with accepting a rate of 23 cents per 100 pounds on a shipment of lard to New York for export to Germany, when the legal tariff then on file with the interstate commerce commission was 35 cents. The trial began last week, and after lengthy argument was continued until Tuesday morning, when Judge Smith McPherson, of Red Oak, Ia., the presiding judge, instructed the jury.

The case is of unusual importance in the list of rebate trials to come up in this court, for it is the first time that any concern has been brought to trial before a jury on a charge affecting export rates as applied to the interstate commerce act. Counsel for the defendants in this trial contended that the court lacked jurisdiction, which was overruled by Judge McPherson, and that that when they signed a contract covering the 23-cent rate it was legal, and that the Burlington later raised its tariff to 35 cents. Judge McPherson's instructions to the jury covered the points fully.

REPORT ON ORPHANS' HOME

Illinois Board Finds Discipline Lax at Normal, But Moral Training of Children Is Satisfactory.

Springfield, Ill., June 13.—J. T. McAnally, Edward A. Kelley and Rev. Emil G. Hirsch, comprising the committee of the Illinois state board of charities which has been investigating alleged lack of discipline, incompetency, bad moral influences and lack of proper foods at the Illinois Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Normal, Ill., where it was also charged that Superintendent McCauley had accepted commissions on materials purchased for the home, Tuesday submitted a report to the board. The board unanimously approved it and ordered it sent to Gov. Deneen.

The report of the committee is summarized as follows:

Discipline lax, and there had been insubordination for five or six years on the teachers' staff. The management is incompetent. William McCauley was eliminated as a factor in the institution before the committee investigated it. Moral training of the children is satisfactory. Charges of immorality against Superintendent McCauley were preposterous. McCauley did not receive commissions. The children have proper food. The committee recommends: That a thorough inquiry be made to find how long it will be necessary in fairness to the children and the soldiers to maintain an institution for the care of soldiers' orphans; at what place the diminishing remnant of soldiers' orphans can best be cared for and to determine whether the Soldiers' Orphans' Home can be used for the treatment of some of the state's permanent wards.
